

Jinu Mathew Consultant

Jinu Mathew graduated in Hotel Management, and completed a Masters in Service Management with University of Buckingham. He has worked for major hotel chain in India. In the UK he has run his own chain of restaurants and exited with an increased value. He has provided consultancy services to many start-up restaurants and made them very successful.

Jinu also spent 4 years as the CEO of a Voluntary and Community Sector Infrastructure body providing membership support to grass root organisations in Medway. He has successfully raised more than £ 200,000 through projects and grants. He was part of the team which administered the £1 million Big Local scheme in Medway.

Jinu currently is the International director of Ministry for Growth. He helps UK companies to expand into Middle East and India and also helps them source from India or China. He specialises in Handholding, Matchmaking and Deal initiation. Jinu also helps overseas companies to locate in the UK.

Some of his Clients / sectors are:

- Automobile equipment reducing the downtime of engines.
- Mobile accessories such as power banks, durable cables
- Wind turbine manufacturer
- Speciality Food and Wine supplier
- Construction equipment supplier
- Hotels
- Health Care Diagnostic tools
- Internet of Things

Jinu has organised many corporate events, the latest one being on Smart Cities, in June 2016, working jointly with Grant Thornton, Penningtons Solicitors, and other blue chip companies. He is part of many international business networks and trade promotion bodies.