

Case Study:

International Explorer™ Inbound

In the increasingly active world of cyber security, Data Shepherd has a portfolio of leading edge, yet affordable, developed in Israel. Whether you are worried about the GDPR, or any other aspect of cyber security, Data Shepherd has a solution.

- Develop a focused approach to business development in London and South East England
- Set up qualified meetings with new customers, including our contacts
- Provided sales support to close deals
- Provided ideas to enter new markets

- Anticipated income in first year alone

£400,000

Detailed case study available on request